Of local Interest.

Court day Monday.

Harrodsburg went dry by a majority of 303.

Eight thousand people attended Home-Coming at Richmond Monday.

Court day dinner at Miss Lena Bright's. Good dinner at low price.

The minstrels will give a big parade Saturday afternoon. They will show on the Haselden lot, on Richmond street.

Lost.

Lost about Saturday June the 2nd a small silver purse containing about four dollars, finder will please return to this office.

Preaching At Fork Church.

Rev Mr Robinson will preach at the Fork church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, so we are informed by our good and popular friend, Mr Millard Route.

Court Day Dinner.

When you come to town Monday, get your dinner at the Ballard House, on Danville street. A first-class substantial dinner at reasonable price. Plenty room for all, and good service. Prompt attention to all.

The "bread wagon" passed over the L and N Sunday, leaving many dollars with the railroad boys. The officials and crew stopped the train thirty-minutes in Lancaster while they paraded a bountiful dinner in their dining car.

Dr Grant, owner of the minstrel shows to be given here Saturday, was here with the Robinson street fair, several years ago, the only decent and good show of the kind ever given here. "Doc" will have nothing to do with him shows. He's an all round clever fellow and has a number of friends here.

Florist Coming.

Real estate agents Hughes & Swinebroad have completed a deal for a lot on Richmond street and made arrangements with Mr Chrisman, of Cincinnati to locate in Lancaster and build a number of hot houses. Work will be commenced in a few days. That such a venture will pay in Lancaster is a sure thing.

Dissolution.

The law firm of Herndon & Swinebroad has dissolved by mutual consent, and Capt Herndon and son, Ben D Herndon, have formed a partnership and will practice at the office over Stormes' drug store. Their card appears elsewhere in The Record. Mr Swinebroad also retains his office at same place for the present.

Victor Lear sold to Dick Gentry, of Lexington, a pair of mules for $440. They were extra good ones.

Many Visitors.

The Record worked hard to secure the names of all the visitors in town, but there are many we failed to learn. It is the custom everywhere for people to inform the newspaper when they have visitors, but some in this section never think to tell us. We want all the names we can get, and will thank you to let us know when you have visitors.

Chapter Inspected.

Lancaster Chapter, No 56, Royal Arch Masons, was inspected Wednesday evening by Hon Rhodes Shaeckelford, G C H., of Richmond. The Chapter was only recently re-organized, but is splendidly fitted up in a new room, with all the new outfits, etc. During his stay in the city, Mr Shaeckelford was entertained by Mr W O Rigney, High Priest of Lancaster Chapter.

Did Good Work.

Mr F S Hughes, commissioner from Garrard county to the Louisville Home Coming, performed his duty to a queen's taste, and is entitled to the gratitude of every loyal Garrardite for the interest he displayed by his hard work. He tells some interesting incidents which occurred at his booth. Miss Sallie Elkin, as hostess, did splendid work, and put forth every effort to make the display and welcome complete.

Hard For The Millers

The last legislature passed a law on custom grinding of wheat and corn which is about as fair as would be to compel millers to furnish saw and teams and haul wheat from the farmers Thresher and then compel them to sell their best patent flour at $1.50 per hundred. The millers and the poor Old Curd dogs have caught it in the neck badly.

Incubator Baby.

Mr Jno L Ray, tells The Record of the birth of a baby at the home of a friend of his who resides at Joplin, Mo which is being raised in an incubator made by a local doctor of that city. The baby only weighs 4 or 5 pounds and was born May 26th. It was placed in the home-made incubator and has since thrived and is doing nicely. Mr Ray was named as godfather and is very proud of the distinction. He is a son of the late Dr Wm Ray, and a very popular and fine young man.

Hilton House.

Mr Malcolm House, the clever proprietor of the Crescent Barber Shop, was married in Middleboro last Monday to Miss Ella Hilton, of that city. The bride was quite popular in her native city, and is a young lady of beauty and accomplishments. Mr House enjoys the friendship of all our people and is a young man of steady habits and good business qualifications. They have taken the rooms over his establishment, on Public Square.

Business Changes.

Miss Sallie Tillett, the well-known milliner, has decided to retire from business and rented her store room to Mrs Alex Walker, the latter having bought the business conducted by Miss Bettie Broadbush. Mrs Walker will move the Broadbush fixtures to the Tillett room and purchase an entire new stock of goods. The stock of Miss Sallie Tillett, also that of Miss Broadbush, is being closed out at cost. Miss Sallie Tillett has been in the millinery business in Lancaster for some time, and built up a splendid trade.

A Bad Fire.

About two o'clock Friday morning, the residence belonging to Rev C M and Miss Julia Ried, and occupied by Mrs Dorcas Walker, on Richmond street, was discovered to be on fire the flames having gained such headway that the family had barely time to escape. Being so far from the Public Square, and occurring at such an hour, it was some time before the hose wagon could be pulled to the scene and the house was well near consumed when streams were turned upon it. Mrs Walker lost all her household furniture and wearing apparel, as did her daughter and two sons, Lewis L and Horace. The only article of value saved was a piano, and a desk containing Mrs Walker's papers. The house was insured for $1,200, and Mrs Walker carried a small policy on the contents.

Home Comers Entertained.

The entertainment for the home-comers, given at the beautiful residence of Mrs Jennie West Tuesday evening, was a success in every sense of the word, and the visitors seemed to enjoy every moment of the time. Delicious refreshments were served, sweet music was discoursed and the time fitted by in the twinkling of an eye. The Record attempted to get the names of the visitors, but all the reporters on the New York world could not have accomplished that task in the limited time and large crowd there. It was truly a touching scene when people, who had not seen each other for twenty five to fifty years would meet, grasp hands and talk over old times. Each person was presented with a handsome Garrard County badge, and the entertainment committee put forth every effort to make the visitors feel at "Home" and enjoy the evening. The ladies who worked up the entertainment are entitled to a debt of deepest gratitude from the citizens of the town.

C E Meeting.

All the Christian Endeavor Societies in Garrard county are expected to meet at the Christian church Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a county association. Let every society be represented.

Supper At Bryantsville.

The Bryantsville Masonic Lodge will serve supper in that city next Saturday night, beginning at 6 o'clock. Ice, cakes, etc., will be served for the small sum of a quarter, and the public is most cordially invited to attend. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Old Masons Home.

The Masonic lodges of Preachersville, Crab Orchard, and Broadhead will give a big celebration at Crab Orchard Saturday, to which the public is cordially invited. Basket dinner will be served, a brass band will play and a good time is insured for all. Hon J Mort Rothwell, of this city, will be the principal speaker.

A Great Minstrel Show Coming.

Dr Horace Grant, of Atlanta, Ga., was in this city last week shaking hands with his many friends. The Doctor is well known here. It was he who brought the best and only carnival Co we have ever had in Lancaster. The Robinson Amusement Co. Dr Grant is now interested in Millieans Mammoth Minstrels, a company numbering 50 people. They will appear in Lancaster, Saturday June 23rd in their own canvas theatre. The company carry their own band and orchestra, and will give a free parade, and grand concert on the public square Saturday afternoon. Dr Grants guarantee that the Company is a good one, will be accepted by our citizens, and the company will undoubtedly play to a large audience, including our best people. Several select parties are already being arranged for.

Deserved Praise.

Col W P Walton, of the Frankfort Journal, says: "Miss Hardin suggested the 'Home Coming,' but to Director General Robert E Hughes is due the credit in the largest measure of the success of the suggestion. He has worked early and late and with an intelligent and earnest purpose that knew no such word as fail. It was a huge undertaking, but 'Bob' Hughes was equal to the occasion. We have known the young man ever since he wore swaddling clothes and have watched his onward course with genuine pleasure. He is a genius for planning and a general in carrying them into execution. The Commercial Club, of Louisville, chose wisely and well when they made 'Bob Hughes their secretary. He has done more in a year to advertise the Fall City than had been done before in ten."

Best In The State.

Lancaster can boast of the best telephone service in the state, and we doubt if more prompt or better service can be found anywhere. The equipment is perfect, the lines run to all points, and calls are answered in a manner seldom enjoyed by patrons in any town. This is due to the good management, in the first place, and in the next to the excellent operators in charge of the lines. The latter are Misses Elizabeth Leigh and Emma Wolfe, two obliging young ladies. They are not only prompt and polite, but always willing to go to extra trouble to accommodate patrons of the line. Few people know the worry and work incumbent upon telephone operators, and if they would only visit the exchange and see how busy the operators are kept, the people would appreciate more fully good service. The young ladies in charge of the Lancaster boards are experts, and The Record congratulates Mr Bastin upon securing their services. Some people speak abruptly to operators but such creatures as do this are unworthy of notice anywhere, especially in print.

U. S. Senator Jas B McCreary.

The Record takes pleasure in mentioning the candidacy of Hon Jas B McCreary for re election to the office of U S Senator. His party believes in the time-honored doctrine of giving every official the second term—especially one who is so honest and capable, and who has held so many high places of public trust, always advocating those principles which insure the greatest good to the greatest number, and always opposing machines, trusts and oppressive corporations. An attempt to tell Kentuckians of his many excellent traits of character would be equivalent to introducing a man to his family.

Given the honest simplicity of a child and the curiosity of a woman and you have the elements of wisdom.

How the English language ever managed to get along without that word "grat" is more than one can imagine.

There is really no need for people to call attention to the peck-a-boo waists. The waists themselves attract all the attention that is necessary.

There's every prospect of an abundant cherry crop throughout the country. It is even believed that there will be a cherry for every cocktail that is made during the summer.

A "sock" party was given in Nicholasville, the other evening. That was one time editor Harry McCarty could explain his non-attendance by working off the women's usual excuse, "I haven't anything to wear."

Inventor Edison predicts that through the use of cobalt the automobile will be brought "within the reach of all." But wouldn't it be better to invent something that would enable us to escape the automobile?

John D Rockefeller's private physician says that the oil king's life policy has been "never to give in when he knows he is right." It might be added that Mr Rockefeller also believes in never giving out any more than he has to.

The Record extends congratulations to its good friend, Col J W Hedden, of the Mt Sterling Advocate, upon his appointment as State Superintendent of Printing. A better man, or more perfect gentleman could not have been found.

When Sara Bernhardt expressed the desire for a drink at Coney Island recently she did not order champagne? Not a bit of it. Rather did she refresh herself with a high ball made of American rye and apollinaris. It is just such little touches as this that stamp Bernhardt as the incomparable genius.

Many old Lancaster friends enjoyed the visit of Ed C Hopper this week. He has been located at San Francisco for some time, and was there, with his daughter, when the great earthquake destroyed the city, and his description of the scenes are exceedingly interesting. A bigger-hearted and better man than Ed Hopper was never put on earth, and his good deeds will live after he has passed to his reward.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, on the 23rd day of April 1906, Deputy Marshal George F Pollard was suddenly taken from our midst to the unknown future by the dastardly deed of a degenerate reprobate, and whereas he was at the time of his death faithfully performing the duties of his office in conserving the peace and protecting our citizenship.

Be it now resolved by the Board of Council of the City of Lancaster, Kentucky, in regular stated meeting assembled that we deplore the existence among some of our citizens of a spirit to encourage and uphold the criminal element in our community in their resistance of the legally constituted authorities and in their violations of the law, of our state and our city, and regret that it should lead to the killing of so faithful an officer and so honorable a man as George F Pollard.

Be it further resolved that it is the sense of this Board that the deceased during his brief term of official life was an efficient and faithful officer courageous and fearless in the performance of his duties and a man of unquestioned honesty and integrity, and that in his death the community has lost a good citizen, an honorable gentleman and a faithful protector of our homes and lives.

Be it further resolved that we extend to his bereaved family in their sorrow and trouble our purest sympathy and the assurance of a helping hand in time of need or want.

And be it further resolved that these resolutions be spread at large on the records of the Council and published in the Central Record, and that a copy of them be transmitted by our city clerk to the family of the deceased.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by R. E. McRoberts the reliable druggist of Lancaster. 1m.

Always Gets Hurt.

The Record's colored janitor, Roe Anderson, seems peculiarly unfortunate in fighting fire. When an alarm is given, he loses his head and works like a madman. Recently he was washed from the roof of a burning house in Duane town and almost put out of commission. At the next alarm he was first to the engine house and cut his hand severely in breaking the glass over the key to the wagon room. At the third fire, he was running to sound the alarm and fell in a pile of broken glass and almost severed a thumb. If everybody would light and work at fires with the same energy, there would not be so many bosses standing around.

Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by R. E. McRoberts the reliable druggist at Lancaster. 1m.

Snakes.

A neighbor tells The Record of an unusual state of affairs at the old Wm Conn place, about three miles from town, back of the Price brothers' farm. William Oaks and family have been occupying the house until last week when a number of snakes appeared, coming from a hollow tree nearby and under the floor. He killed one or two, but this did no good and the snakes continued to show up on every hand. The family could hear them hissing in the night, so vacated the house. We are informed that at least ten or a dozen have been seen at one time crawling on the walls, floors and steps of the house. As Mr. Oaks has put crops on the place, it is working a hardship on him to have to move. It has been proposed to organize a party and make war on the reptiles, but no one can be found to take the lead.

Louisville Atlantic Resort

Fontaine Ferry Park, "the park beautiful," has come to be recognized as one of the foremost sights Louisville folks now show their guest when a visit is made to the State metropolis. It is a veritable dreamland of beauty, especially by night, and Louisville can well boast of one of the largest and handsomest family resorts in America. While no doubt many citizens of this community have already paid a visit to the spot, it is something that should not be missed when a trip to Louisville is made.

It is said that over $300,000.00 was expended in the equipment and beautifying of the place. It is located on the river bank and is the coolest spot about the city. At night the park is illuminated by nearly 20,000 electric lights and presents a scene of great brilliancy. Cars passing all of the depots either go directly to the park or transfers are given which enable visitors to reach it for a single fare.

Each week brings some new attractions to Fontaine Ferry so that there is always something different to greet the visitor. Conspicuous among the amusement features are mammoth summer theatre, where high class vaudeville is offered every afternoon and evening of the week. The programs include some of the best known performers on the stage and are always refined and enjoyable. The scenic railway is said to be one of the longest and most beautiful in the United States. A magnificent carroussel, or merry-go-round has been installed this summer and is one of the star attractions of the resort.

Death From Lockjaw

never follows an injury dressed with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent blood poisoning. Chas Oswald, merchant, of Rensselaersville, N. ## DO IT TO-DAY!

"And I think that ten months ago I looked like this. I feel like a new man now."
